IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.34863 of 2008
MANOJ YADAV
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR
---

2. 11.9.2008 Head.

The petitioner is the son of the informant and is alleged to have killed the youngest of the three sons born to the informant. The petitioner and the middle son of the informant were married and has children also. The youngest one had been married but his wife did not come to his house. The petitioner bore some criminal antecedents and was found in possession of some illegal arms. He was demanding the partition of the family property and for that he was making a hell of the situation so much so that he used to beat up his younger brothers. It is under this background that the father alleged that this petitioner shot into the mouth of his youngest brother so as to killing him. The circumstances have been indicated by the father and one of such circumstance is running away from the house after being confronted with the allegation of having murdered his youngest brother.

Petition is dismissed.
